Introduction to Group Manager

We are often required to use edition functions on recurring elements. An example of this could be moving, mirroring or copying objects. Every single time that we need to select those elements one by one, we face a daunting, challenging and sometimes a very time consuming task. In order to get rid of inaccuracies, a function to group elements was added to ZWCAD (function: group), thanks to which we can create a selectable group from selected elements.

To extend the group function, we have designed a special Group Manager that includes an extra panel with additional options.

Once Group Manager is installed and launched along with ZWCAD, a panel will appear on the left side of ZWCAD with information regarding groups that are visible in the drawing. Function icons are visible above the file list.

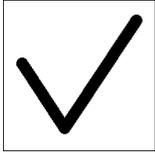

Group manager is able to:

- Create groups,
- Explode groups,
- Add and remove elements from a group,
- Search for groups in a drawing,
- Paste objects from clipboard as a group,
- Enable or disable selection of a particular group (whether it should be selected individually or as a group)
- Enable or disable all groups selection,
- Change the name of a group,
- Add or change group description,
- Quick selection of groups on the drawing,

- Display information regarding amount of groups in a drawing.

Group Manager functions

Creating groups

Once a group is created, a new field will appear in the table. The name of a group will be added automatically and will begin with a star (these are called anonymous groups). The button in the second column decides whether a group will be selected as one object or as a whole. The third column is a description of a group, which by default is set to be empty.

On the drawings below you can see the steps of creating a group in Group Manager.

Adding elements to an existing group

This function adds new objects to an existing group.

Before using this function, it is necessary to select a group to which new elements will be added and then select the function to add elements to an existing group.

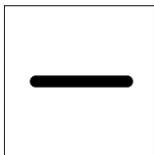

On the drawings below you can see the steps of adding elements to an existing group

Removing elements from a group

This function removes selected objects from an existing group.

In order to remove elements from a group, firstly select a group, click on Remove elements from a group function and select elements that are going to be removed.

The steps to remove elements from a group are presented below:

 Select the function Remove elements from a group		 Obiekt do usunięcia z grupy

Exploding groups

Exploding groups allows users to select single elements rather than a whole group. After exploding a group, some elements which are whole will remain unchanged.

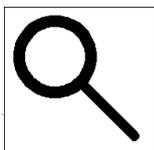

Instruction on how to explode groups can be found on the screenshots below:

Starting state. One group is created with the following name: *A13
Select the group which will be exploded
 Click on the button representing the explode function
The group will disappear from the list. Objects will remain unaltered.
